A QUARTERLY PUBLICATION OF THE PAINT & POWDER CLUB

Volume 3, Issue 2

December 2015

Incorporated in 1893

A Message from the President T. Franklin Fiske

Hello Paint & Powder Members,

I hope this letter finds you well. Unbelievably, my term is almost half over ... but now the fun and the work REALLY begin. After the impressive attendance at the Fall Outing, I am looking forward to a nice crowd at the Christmas Party. I appreciate the support the Club is giving me, and I think this will be a successful year.

Soon, we will receive new rosters, raffle tickets, and be asked to begin selling ads, tickets, and sponsorships to our May Show. Rod has put together a splendid rundown of numbers for us to perform, and we simply have to fill the parts. Should be exciting!

Doug Chambers, Carolyn Manning, Rod Clark and I have been figuring out the best way to optimize the Scottish Rite facility. Our goal is good seats, good food, and good performances.

I trust everyone will enjoy their Holiday seasons. Above all, stay healthy and safe.

Frank Fiske

Guess what! (Things you might like to know...)

The Chris Hergenroeder Scholarship Fund

A large amount of Chris Hergenroeder's clothing was taken to the Women's Clothing Exchange sale at the Parkville American Legion Hall on October 15, 16, 17, 18. Thanks to Betsie Johnson, Francene Siegel for putting together the clothes to go into the sale and volunteering for floor duty along with Lila Hopkins we were able to get 75% of the value of the clothes sold. We received a check for $193.09 from the Women's Clothing Exchange. The money was sent to Buzz Warren to go into the Scholarship fund. — John Hergenroeder

Assimilation

The assimilation ceremony goes over the history of the club and identifies the many interesting people that have been members of the club since 1893. The ceremony is capped off by giving each new member the Club's pin.

The assimilation ceremony was conducted by John Hergenroeder and Bill Rose at the Fall Outing on October 10h.

Christmas Caroling

The usual Christmas caroling we do at Roland View Towers is not going to take place this year, after 50(?) years. Instead we are singing at the

Westminster House on Dec. 7th at 6:00 p.m.

Garland McPherson is pres. of the board there & they are needy seniors. We will be singing on the 18th floor! Sounds like fun, so I hope all singers can join us. The facility is close to the Peabody.

— Bernie Cook

We will also be singing Christmas songs Dec. 11, 5-9 at the Green Turtle at Hunt Valley. This is a fundraiser for the Boys and Girls Club and the Kamryn Lambert Foundation. Toys will be collected for both charities. Jonathan Ogden and Adam Jones are sponsoring this event. Time we will be singing will be announced later. Hopefully lots of good press. If interested in singing call Rod.

The P&P Playbill is a quarterly publication for the exclusive readership of Paint & Powder Club members. Members are encouraged to contribute material for publication. Please submit copy to Bill Moss.

Happily Married

After 8 years of being together, on August 28, 2015, Kevin Keller and Carolyn Wasilewski were married at Antrim 1844 in Taneytown, MD. It was a beautiful sunny day in their rose gardens. Eighty guests joined the happy couple for the ceremony including Bernie and Trisha. Carolyn and Kevin left the following Monday for their honeymoon in Jamaica for six wonderful days at Sandals Whitehouse. The P&P Club extends our heartfelt best to Carolyn and Kevin.

GUESS WHO?

Interested in a Timeshare?

Geri and I have a timeshare at the Church Street Inn in Charleston SC. We've booked the week of July 2-7, 2016 and will offer that to those of you who would like to take advantage of a terrific week. There will be great events in Downtown Charleston that week during 4th of July celebrations. We have a 1-BR (Kingsize bed), 2 Bath condo with beautiful amenities including a gorgeous eat-in kitchen. The building is 1/2 block from the Old Central Market. What a great time awaits you in Charleston, the site of the 1st battle of the Civil War (Ft Sumpter tours available). The rental fee we will ask for will be well below what the regular room fee is for that week ($300+ per night). The Senior Star Showcase will be presenting a Christmas Show on the 12th and 13th of December at 2:00pm in the Arts and Humanities' building, Room 211. Honor, Maxine, Sharon and Lelia will be performing along with 20 other senior citizens. It promises to be very entertaining. You will not want to miss the Dancing Seniors and the joyous singing celebrating the season.

ALMONER'S REPORT

Trisha Webster

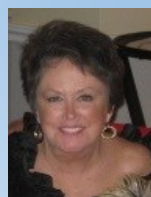

Marion Drach's sister, Jane passed away on October 8th after suffering a stroke. Marion and Jane were very close.

Harry and Doris Silverwood's son, Scott suffered a grand mal seizure on October 12th while in the car with his wife near White Marsh. The ambulance took him to Franklin Square Hospital where he was stabilized and kept overnight. The scans and tests showed that he had a large meningioma tumor on the brain. After consulting with a friend who is a doctor at JHH, he elected to have his surgery at Hopkins. On Wednesday he went into the operating room around noon, and the surgery was finally finished and he moved into the intensive recovery area around 7:30 that evening. Although the operation was lengthy, all went well, and he appears to have no negative after-effects. He was discharged and got home Friday afternoon.

Rehab will take some time – he hopes to get back to work in about eight weeks, but won't be able to drive until January.

Harry and Doris deeply appreciate everyone's concerns, prayers and support.

Deb Hussey's very dear friend Michael passed away. This has been a very difficult time for Deb. Drop her a note or give her a call. Deborah L. Hussey, 174 Dumbarton Rd., Baltimore, MD 21212. 410.494.1920.
