A Message from the President Jerry Chiat

I would like to thank everyone for a good year. You members show so much energy to not only Paint and Powder but to the show. This year's show, Cinema Shtick, was fast paced, hard work and fun to do! It would not work as well without community support, sponsors, our charities, Linwood Center and Children's Playhouse of Maryland, and above all, the guests who attended. We hope that you appreciated Rod Clark's directorial and production skills, his heart and soul, and, as the show's writer, his SHTICKY sense of humor!

I want to thank my wonderful wife Eileen for her focus on Paint and Powder. She is truly a major reason that my term was good. ILY. Here's to the Paint and Powder Board of Governors for helping with my agenda for this 125th anniversary year. I raise a glass of bubbly to everyone who helped in every way possible to make this show a success. Here is wishing you all good health, love and peace. Thank you all again for supporting Paint and Powder. As our anniversary year comes to an end, I extend best wishes and success to our next President, Mr. Rod Clark, as he will run the Paint and Powder show... in more ways than one!

Jerry

Cost is free to all active cast members and crew. $15 for guests. Please be sure to sign up with Judy Kahl (jkahl1121@verizon.net) if you are coming. Hope to see all of you there.

Spotlight on Eric Winter

Dear Paint and Powder Family,

It is with mixed emotions that I must tell you I will be moving to Austin, Texas in June of this year for an exciting career opportunity. After a couple years of encouragement, in 2017 my mom Beverly Winter convinced me to audition for last years show. Before “Kings and Roses,” I had not performed on stage in 27 years, and what an absolutely wonderful time I had!

In December 2017, Rod called me to ask if I was still living in Maryland. When I said yes, he explained that he had me in mind for several parts in “Cinema Shtick,” including a murdering woman from “Cell Block Tango,” a younger woman in “Summer Loving,” and a Hawaiian hula girl. I asked him if he had anything for me where I play a man, and he responded “yes, ‘Men in Tights!’” I’m not sure of the gender of the magic carpet in the Aladdin number, but it’s 2018, so I can deal with it. The cowboys are all a little bit off as well.

Exactly 6 years ago, I moved back to my home town of Baltimore after being away for 33 years. I lived in England twice for 8 years, California twice for 14 years as well as Manhattan, Boston and Delaware. I was able to move in just a few yards from my best friend, my father Jackson Winter, who passed away unexpectedly 10 months later. I can say unequivocally that those 10 months, as a result of seemingly negative circumstances, were the greatest gift of my life. I have always been optimistic at heart, and that was the most concrete evidence I’ve ever seen that the Universe, or God if you will, always had a new path for you as long as you keep getting up and doing the right thing.

Now Beverly is moving to Charles Street, right across the street from Scottish Rite. My son Tarzan, I mean Zachary, will be a junior at LSU, so Austin is considerably closer, driving distance by Texas standards. My 19 year old daughter Mackenzie is also thriving, but she will stay in Maryland with her mom to continue college, and hopefully visit me often. Austin is known for its various music festivals, and I look forward to Mackenzie's visit in October to see Paul McCartney, again!

So circumstances have again aligned for me to make this move, and I'm excited to discover the new, unexpected benefits that will go along with my relocation. They're sure to reveal themselves in their own time.

I can't tell you what a joy it had been to be a part of Paint and Powder, if only for two years. It's been good for my body, mind and soul, and I am privileged to have made so many new friends. What a terrific bunch you are!

But perhaps it is not goodbye, but maybe "Till We Meet Again." I told Rod that if he could see a way to create a small part for me in next year's show, I would fly in for tech week to participate!

Warmest Regards, and Break a Leg!

Eric Winter

The Ellicott City Flood

Many thanks to all who reached out to me regarding the Linwood Boutique and our condition after the flood last weekend. I am thankful to report that we are one of only a very few businesses that was spared from the devastation in Old Ellicott City. Having said that, I don't know what the future of the Boutique will be. It largely depends on the future of the town.

For now, we are stepping aside while our fellow merchants and the residents of Old EC sift through the rubble and sort through their options. In the meantime, we are preparing to have the adults who worked and trained at the Boutique work out of the mansion on our school campus.

For those who have asked how to help Linwood, I thank you. We are fine. As an alternative, I ask you to kindly turn your attention to the real victims of the flood—the merchants whose livelihoods were destroyed and the residents who were displaced. Please visit <http://visitoldellicottcity.com/ec-partnership/donate/> to see how you can help.

Thank you.

Thanks for reading. You are definitely a better person now...

ALMONER'S REPORT

Trisha Webster

Trisha Webster

Honor Branch had a malignancy removed from her forehead/eyebrow area. It is now cancer free. Honor's Polymyalgia Rheumatica is being treated with steroids.

Bobbie Bull is home, using a walker or cane to get around. Bobbie appreciates all the cards, calls and well wishes. She is planning to attend the show with John Codd.

Harry Davenport continues to keep extremely active and happy. Harry mentioned the Roebucks have taken up residence at Blakehurst. Charles has become sightless.

Edward "Lefty" Elliott Jr. was a retired renowned sports coach in Baltimore. Lefty was renowned for his fame as a coach of high school and college sports. Lefty also performed with the Paint & Powder Club back in the day as well as aboard the Bay Lady and the Lady Baltimore. He was a talented gentleman in all areas. Lefty died March 20, 2018 at Stella Maris.

"I knew Lefty for many years and saw him in his capacity as a great basketball coach. He taught and coached at Edmondson High School for many years. I even bought a hat from him while he had a booth at a local Flea Market!!" – MarK Schlenoff

Bill Pheil spent 12 days in the hospital. Doctors inserted three stents in his heart. Bill is recovering at home, and his daughter and son-in-law are staying with him. Cards and phone calls would be appreciated. 13 Northampton Road, 21093 - 410-252-6140. Unfortunately, he will be unable to sing and dance in the Paint & Powder show, but he will be able to be an encouraging spectator. Bill is doing much better and hoped to soon return to the remainder of his regular activities. He was definitely in good spirits, feeling good about his procedures.

Harry and Doris Silverwood were enjoying dinner with Al Long and his daughter Beverly Geiger. Harry didn't feel well and after discussion between the two nurses (Doris and Beverly), an ambulance was summoned. Harry and Doris were whisked away to Johns Hopkins Hospital. Diagnosis: dehydrated, too much yard work, and last minute tax prep. Nurse Doris will manage his care and follow up. Harry was ordered to rest, however, The Boss is allowing him to participate in the show on a limited basis. Harry is happy to be there.

Mary Ann Warren is back at Springwell and is doing much better. The anemia has not reoccurred for now. She has some short term memory issues and she has severe osteoarthritis in her left hip which limits her mobility. We hope to get her to the show Saturday night.

Please continue to keep Trisha notified
